Attn: MILITARY AFFAIRS

Mr. Congressman,

I am writing this letter in the hope that you can assist my entry into the Navy.

I have had a few minor scrapes with the law, in the past, which are all resolved. The Air Force, which was my first choice of military, told me that I was not acceptable because of the past legal issues.

I then applied to the Navy and they informed me that they had others with worse legal situations approved for enlistment. The recruiters informed me at the outset that it might require a full waiver but it should be no problem.

Today, when I returned some paperwork to the recruiter in the Glendale Heights office, (b) (6) he informed me that the Navy could not approve my enlistment. I kept being strung along during the process only to end up where I am today. They even told me today, that I should talk to the Army or the Marines, that maybe they could do something for me. I really don't want to join the Army or the Marines, instead I would rather join the Navy.

I am very discouraged by their run around and am seeking your assistance in the successful resolution of this matter.

I would very much appreciate anything you can do to aid me in my enlistment into the Navy.

Sincerely,

(b) (6)
